

EDDIE’S EDITORIAL

I’m not a golf person but I did hear some commentators talking about some of the rules for the spectators who chose to attend the Master Golf classic this past weekend in Augusta Georgia. Here are just a few that caught my attention. No cell phones or cameras. No hats worn backwards. No food or drinks on the course. Sorry ladies, but no purses on the course. If you bring a chair on the course to sit in it must be collapsible with no arms. And the list goes on and on. But never does anyone complain about the rules. They abide by them and enjoy the game.

Wouldn’t it be great if individuals would do the same when it comes to God’s rules. However, many pay His rules no attention. Want to set and live by their own rules in life. May we remember that the rules or commandments that God gives are for our benefit. 1 John 5:3, “For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome.”

The commandments of God are for our benefit. To live the best life possible God has given to us a path to follow. When we get off that path is when the road gets rough. It’s amazing how some will abide by the rules of sports but reject the rules of God. See you Sunday. Eddie

Landon's Letters

Are we rejoicing over what God would rejoice over? In Luke 15:7 Jesus tells us that there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. I wonder if we truly are rejoicing when others who have sinned come to Christ in repentance or are we judging them for what they are asking forgiveness from? I know there are probably many people who fall into that second category but we need to listen to the words of Matthew 7:5 and start focusing on ourselves first before trying to pass judgement on our brothers and sisters who are coming to repentance! If we will start to focus on ourselves and making sure that we are right with God then we can help others come to that repentance with a sincere heart!
