

EDDIE’S EDITORIAL

I appreciate the comments on the lessons Sunday. Concerning the evening lesson on reasons to be thankful, one member asked, “Have you ever prayed and all you do is give thanks?” That got me to thinking and paying closer attention to my own prayers. To often our prayers consist more of needs instead of thanks. There is nothing wrong with asking God to take care of our needs but sometimes our thanks are lesser in number.

The next time you pray trying giving thanks the entire prayer. We certainly have much to be thankful for and offering such a prayer will help us to see just how much God does for us.

Our parenting seminar is coming up quickly. The deadline is February 16 and be sure to get your name on the list. Each lesson will address the many dangers our children are facing. It seems like almost everyday there is a child/teenager that comes up missing. A lot of this is due to the social media. Parents can use all the help they can get in protecting their children.

We will have a guest speaker Sunday evening and for the Bible Bowl. Check out Landon’s page for his bio and topic.

Looking forward to seeing you Sunday. Eddie

Landon's Letters

This Sunday we have our annual Bible Bowl test at the Vernon Church of Christ. Our kids as well as all of the others have been studying very hard on the overall Bible instead of just a single chapter this time. I want to ask every one of you if you can to come and be with us during our service and encourage all of the youth who are participating. No matter the outcome of the test they are all learning things that are very important! Also if you do come you will be in for a treat as we are having brother Charles Steiner the campus minister at the Northport Church of Christ bringing the lessons for us. If you know of any Junior or Senior in high school that is interested in attending college in Tuscaloosa be sure to invite them to get some information on the Crimson Campus Ministry! See you all Sunday.

In Him, Landon
