

EDDIE’S EDITORIAL

We had another good week at Vernon last week. First we rejoice as Tyler Rayfield asked for the prayers of the church in living a more faithful life toward God. Be sure to remember him in your prayers. Second, we rejoice as Tracy Windle was baptized into Christ on June 25th. Be sure to remember her as she begins her walk with God. We also rejoice with Noah Chism as he ask for the prayers of the church in being a better example Wednesday evening. Remember him in your prayers.

Our numbers were up this week for the morning service. We had several back for the first time since the virus hit. Our Wednesday evening numbers are almost back to where they were before the virus. Just remember if you have any symptoms please stay home until you are feeling better. There is always the online service you can watch and participate in it.

We have many things to praying for and let’s make sure we are sending our prayers often to God. See you Sunday. Eddie

Landon's Letters

It was great to see so many people out for our Sunday service this past week. Each week it seems we have more and more coming and that is really encouraging to see that everyone is striving to serve the Lord and be together worshipping and praising him! I know that there are many things that we could be doing or getting done if we were not here but nothing more important than being with your brothers and sisters in Christ praising the Lord.

The past few weeks we have had a couple baptisms and people come forward asking for prayers of the church. I want to encourage each and every one of you to pray for these people as the ones who became a Christian are starting their walk with Christ and we know that life isn't easy just because we become a Christian so I want you to pray for them and their walk. We all could use prayers in that matter because we all have things that we deal with on a day-to-day basis! I am praying for you all and looking forward to being with you all again on Sunday!

In Him, Landon
