

EDDIE'S EDITORIAL

A "Precis" is a shortened version of an essay or article that maintains the meaning of the original writing. So if you have a 500 word article you must shorten it to 250 words and maintain the meaning. Then take the 250 words and shorten it to 100 words and maintain the same meaning. What you are doing is getting to the heart of the matter by taking out unnecessary words.

The Bible could have many more chapters and verses but God decided what we have is enough to let us know His will and plan for mankind. John 21:25 tells us that Jesus did much more than what was recorded in the Bible but what we have been given is enough to prove Him to be the Son of God. Enough to develop our faith.

It is now up to us to search His word in order to learn and apply it to our lives. To understand His plan of salvation for man. To know that one day judgment is coming and where we will spend eternity. So don't lay the Bible aside but read, study and meditate on the message God has revealed.

See you Sunday. Eddie

Landon's Letters

I am excited to let you all know that starting this next quarter for Sunday school we will be starting a young adult class. The class will start on November 7th and will begin being lead by Hugh Windle. I know he will have a lot of great topics for us so we look forward to your attendance! We will also be having a kickoff cookout for this out at the Windle's lake house, but the exact date for that has not been set in stone yet so we will announce that closer to time! If you have any ideas or topics you want to go over in this class be sure to let myself, Jason, or Hugh know! I encourage you all to be praying for this work and hope that it achieves great things for the Lord's Kingdom!

In Him, Landon
