

EDDIE’S EDITORIAL

In John chapter 10 Jesus gives an illustration concerning the relationship between sheep and their shepherd. At times shepherds would carry their sheep to the city and the sheep would be kept in a sheepfold until the shepherd took care of his business. In this sheepfold there would be many sheep from different flocks and shepherds. When the shepherd got ready to leave all he had to do was to call out to his sheep and they would follow his voice and depart the sheepfold. There was no need for marking or branding his sheep because they knew his voice. The shepherd had a unique call that only his sheep would recognize and off they would go following their shepherd.

In our world today there are many voices calling out to the Christian. Popular culture is calling. The social media is calling. Politics is calling. The list goes on and on, so who do we listen to? We know the answer, the Good Shepherd. The voice of Jesus found in the Bible is the voice we are to listen to. By listening to His voice we have the assurances of one day being with Him in eternity. Listen to His voice. Follow His lead. Do as He says.

Looking forward to seeing you Sunday. Eddie

Landon's Letters

Are we working in God's Vineyard or are we standing idle by watching others do all of the work? God wants all of us to roll up our sleeves and get to work in His Vineyard, but for many of us that is the last thing that we want to do. Whatever reasons we have we will find anything else to do instead of doing work for the Lord. I encourage you all to change that mindset if that is you and start working for God. He will bless you in ways you never though possible if you give Him control and start working for Him!

If you are interested in the L2L program please join us for the meeting after the morning service this Sunday!
