

EDDIE’S EDITORIAL

We are a little more than two weeks away from our Gospel Meeting March 30-April 2. Be sure to take note of the group meals each evening at 6:00 on the upcoming activity’s column. Our Gospel Meeting week is always a busy week and this year will be no exception. I certainly hope each member will make a special effort to be here at each service. To invite someone to come with you and take an active part in the meals each evening and also the noon devotionals.

We always have many visitors with us each service so make sure to give everyone a warm welcome and invite them back for the next service.

I’m sure that there will be other things going on each night of the meeting that will try to pull you away. Why not make a commitment today to do your very best to be present at each service. Your being here will be a great encouragement to everyone. Your staying home will be a discouragement. We can all be of encouragement to each other by putting first things first.

Be praying and inviting for our meeting and be expecting good things to come fourth. Looking forward to having a great week March 30-April 2. Eddie
